

now that enlightenment has fell upon us, to withdraw the amendment.

PRESIDENT: Do you have anything else on the bill, Mr. Clerk? I guess we're ready to read it then, LB 413 with the emergency clause attached.

CLERK: (Read LB 413 on Final Reading.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 413 pass with the emergency clause attached? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Record vote read as found on page 1837 of the Legislative Journal.) 44 ayes, 0 nays, 5 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

PRFSIDENT: LB 413 passes with the emergency clause attached. LB 514 with the emergency clause attached.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a motion. Senator Landis, Senator, I understand that the amendment that you had had, that you had printed, that we had placed in the bill books, you want to withdraw that one. Is that correct, Senator?

SENATOR LANDIS: That is correct, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Landis would move to return LB 514 to Select File for a specific amendment. The amendment is AM1076.

PRESIDENT: Senator Landis, please.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. You'll find this amendment on your desk and there are only a few slight changes between what you've had an opportunity to be reading now for the last week or so and this one, some last minute changes that were suggested by the Department of Insurance in this case. In essence, it removes the appeal procedure that I had in the former one and just relies on the existing appeal procedure in insurance statutes for captors who are dealing with the Insurance Department. Secondly, it increases the fee from 50 to $100 for certain filings. It indicates that captors are subject to department rules as well as statutes. That would be standard procedure, just something that was left out. It requires
